STATEMENT OF RISK:

Adventurous activities such as stand up paddleboarding carry inherent associated dangers to all participants. You must take the necessary precautions to ensure your own safety and that of other group members at all times.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

1. SUP Bristol Ltd is not responsible for the use of the equipment. We only provide equipment to be used under the skills and abilities of the hirer, we require no proof of ability and offer no advice or instruction in the use of the equipment and how they are to be used.
2. The hirer acknowledges that they are responsible for their own safety and that of their group when hiring equipment, which involves inherent risk.
3. I agree to return the items on the stated day in the condition in which I received them. Any damaged equipment will be charged for at full retail price for replacement or repair if deemed appropriate, regardless of how damage was caused.
4. SUP Bristol Ltd acts in good will when hiring out equipment and as such expects such from the hirer. We reserve the right to withdraw and collect our equipment at any point and for any reason during a hire period.
5. The hirer is satisfied with the serviceable condition of the equipment.
6. No instruction or advice has been sought or given from SUP Bristol Ltd on the use or location best suited to the hirer's group.
